When Christ's appearance was made known, King Herod trembled for his throne; but he who suffers heavenly birth seeks not the kingdoms of this earth. The eastern sages saw from far and followed on his guiding star; by light their way to light they trod, and by their gifts confessed their God. Within the Jordan's sacred flood, the heavenly Lamb in meekness stood, that he, to whom no sin was known, might cleanse his people from their own. And oh, what miracle divine, when water reddened into wine! He spoke the word, and forth it flowed in streams that nature ne'er bestowed. For this his glad epiphany, all glory unto Jesus be; whom with the Father we adore, and Holy Ghost forevermore.

Prayer for Illumination

Old Testament Lesson Isaiah 62:1-5

p. 692 in O.T.

Psalm in Unison Psalm 36:5-10
Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens,
your faithfulness to the clouds.
Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your judgments are like the great deep;
you save humans and animals alike, O LORD.
How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
They feast on the abundance of your house,

and you give them drink from the river of your delights.
For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we see light.
O continue your steadfast love to those who know you,
and your salvation to the upright of heart!
